

VICTORIA

Melbourne is referred to as the most cosmopolitan city of Australia it has a strong multicultural influence and is the most densely populated of all States.

Situated around Port Phillip Bay the beaches are relatively sheltered in contrast to the popular surfing beaches along the southern coast to the east of Melbourne.

Melbourne has a cooler climate than the other mainland states providing a diversity of environments from the magnificent high country which extends into the alpine areas to the wheat belts and majestic Murray River in the interior.

Home to Australian Football the city is passionate about their sport with a wide choice of activities available all year whether you enjoy sailing on the Bay or snow skiing there is something for everyone.
